* Estimate: net sales × 0.518 − ad spend, before fixed costs. Our break-even ROAS is 1.93, which leaves about €0.52 of every €1 of sales to pay for ads. The extra €5,660 spend per week brought in €13,083 extra net sales: €2.31 per extra €1, above break-even. Returns rose to €6,164 in your five weeks (€104 before); they are already deducted from net sales.

04 · ASSESSMENT

What went well, and what needs to change

Went well

- Revenue doubled. Net sales went from €12,750 to €25,833 per week, and orders from 82 to 144.
- Growth stayed profitable. The extra spend returned €2.31 per €1, above break-even. Weekly profit rose by about 70%.
- Strong week on 5 Oct: revenue per €1 of 2.72, the best since 31 Aug.
- Good campaigns: Worldwide Test (2.59), Worldwide 2.0 (2.54), Creative Test (2.34) and Worldwide LAL (2.23).
- Store conversion rose to 1.35–1.42% in late September.

Needs to change

- Last week: spend went up 26% while sales went down 2%. Revenue per €1 fell to 2.12 and Meta ROAS to 1.78.
- Four campaigns ran below break-even for a week or longer: UK Scaling, USA CBO, Retargeting and UK+IE LAL.
- Losers ran without a stop rule. USA LAL (1.64) and UK+IE LAL (1.75) kept spending for weeks.
- Costs went up. CPM rose from €21.84 to €26.19 (+20%, normal before Black Friday). Store conversion fell to 1.03%.
- Germany had no campaign of its own from 21 Sep to 16 Oct. It still converted through the worldwide campaigns at a ROAS of 2.41.

05 · FROM TODAY

How we work now: the 48-hour SOP

The full rules are in the separate SOP document. In short:

Every 48 hours

Judge each campaign on its last 48 hours. One change per campaign, then wait 48 hours.

The ladder

4.0+: +100% · 3.0–4.0: +50% · 2.4–3.0: +20% · 1.93–2.4: hold · 1.0–1.93: −20% · under 1.0: −50%

Limits

No verdict under €100 spend. Total budget stays at or under €2,000 a day without owner approval.

Creative testing

€250 a day. A new batch every 48 hours. Winners move to scaling via Post ID.

Kill rule for ads

€150 spend with 0 sales, or €300 spend at ROAS under 1.5: switch it off.

Report

After every cycle: what you scaled, cut and paused, the new winners, and anything to flag.

Questions to answer

1. Last week, spend went up 26% but sales went down. Which campaigns did you scale, and why?
2. Which stop rule will you use from now on, so that a campaign like UK+IE LAL is cut sooner?
3. Which creatives do you need from us for the next 3 test batches?
